

We know that there are a lot of questions – please put some thought into your answer for #1 and then try to muck your way through as many of the rest of them as you can. If we can get some good participation, this can be a good way for your former classmates to feel like they know you again ... And maybe see how weird you've become ...

1. Please give us a short biography, including your current (or prior to retirement) occupation, number of kids, grandkids and (wow) great-grandkids, if any (required)
2. Do you consider yourself retired, and if so, for how many years?
3. Number of years married (to the same person)?
4. How many different cities (or locations) have you lived in since high school?
5. Have you taken any interesting trips? To where?
6. Out of all the vehicles you've had since high school, which one did you have for the longest? Which one was your favorite?
7. Favorite kinds of music?
8. Favorite band(s) or artist(s)? Favorite concerts? Have you seen any groups or performers multiple times? If so, who?
9. What was the LOUDEST concert you ever attended?
10. What are some of your Favorite movie(s)?
11. What is your favorite sport to watch? Which team is your favorite?
12. Do you have any hobbies or unique skills?
13. What was your most embarrassing (relatable) moment from high school? Do you have a favorite high school memory?
14. Which PHS teacher did you learn the most from? Which one was your favorite?
15. Any memorable experiences since high school?
16. What's one big life lesson you've learned in the past 50 years?
17. If you could, what knowledge would you pass back to your high school self?
18. Got any tattoos? How many? Any that you wish you hadn't gotten?
19. What TV shows do you find yourself watching the most?:
20. How many streaming services do you subscribe to?

BONUS QUESTION - If you could be anyone in history, dead or alive, who would you be and why?